A FORM OF PRAYER

We tend to think of prayer as something different and separate from our ordinary lives. But, in a way, every thought in our heads is a form of prayer. Depending upon whether we think positively or negatively about someone we are, in a sense, 'praying' for either good things or bad things to happen to that person. What we think and say is a large part of our everyday 'prayer' life.

Every thought in our heads is a form of prayer.

Consciously, we would all like our prayer lives to be both more effective and more positive. Without Jesus Christ this is not possible; but when we invite Him into our lives we begin to change. Our prayers become deeper and more effective, and our daily prayer life becomes more positive. We begin, not only, to lead a richer and more positive life, but to say and to think and to want good things for others and for ourselves. Let us pray for this to happen.

TESTIMONY

This letter is a simple thank you note. I am in the Marine Corps and was returning to California from Ft. Benning when a woman (Rev. Jana Bernadette) stopped me in Atlanta Airport and asked me to help the ministry. She was so sincere I actually wanted to help. She befriended me and we talked as if we had known each other for quite a while. Since then I have done a 180 degree turn in my life. And after so long I thought it not possible. She is the first true friend I have had in many years.

I want to thank all members of the Circle of Power for the prayers which channeled God's healing to my gums. They did heal considerably, and the surgery that was required was much less than my dentist had anticipated. Thanks again, and praise God.

THE POWER OF PRAYER

Members of the Circle of Power in Ghana praying over letters requesting healing.

Prayer is the most powerful weapon our Lord has given us in the war against the Evil One. Jesus says, "For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them." (Matthew 18:20). That is a powerful promise.

Satan knows that if he can keep us tyrannized by the fears and problems of the world, believing only in physical human

Kingdom of God.

In Christ, on the other hand, we transcend the world and its problems. The Holy Spirit is within us, and our relationship to the physical world assumes its rightful place, governed by His Spirit.

Healing through prayer transcends what is possible in worldly terms, and shows us the Kingdom, bringing health instead of sickness, joy instead of oppression, and above all glorifying the Father.

Two years ago the Lord guided us to begin the Circle of Power Prayer Fellowship as a vital part of this ministry, to pray for the sick and oppressed, to pray for the lost that they might return to Him in these Latter Days, to pray for the rest of His creation so often abused by mankind. And the Lord, as is His promise, has blessed those prayers bringing healing, and through testimony, faith and strength to many.

It is our particular joy to bring you pictures of some of the leading members of the Circle of Power in Ghana, West Africa. Led by Sister Grace Felicia Asare-Djan,

Ministry of Health in Ghana, their powerful testimonies are an inspiration, and Grace writes this month, "God is guiding us each day in our sessions and providing healing for those who come to us in distress."

If you are not already a member of the Circle of Power we urge you to write to us in order to become one. Prayer is the single most important contribution any of us can make to God's work in the world.

NEWS BRIEFS

THE PRISON MINISTRY

June saw the start of our visiting program to Death Row at the State Prison in Jackson, Georgia, conducted by Revs. John Christopher and Charity Benedicte. We praise God for this opportunity to channel the healing love of Christ.

We also praise God for the ongoing opportunities provided by our involvement at U.S.P., Atlanta and at the Atlanta Women's Transitional Center (previously known as Columbia House).

ANIMAL ACTION

Three important meetings were the highlights for this ministry. The first, held at Faith Center, was organized and chaired by Rev. John Christopher, and included two specially invited guests. The first, Gene Tharpe, a writer and columnist for the Atlanta Constitution, spoke warmly from his experience as a reporter who has covered many animal-related stories. The second, Anne Higgins of the Humane Society, showed and commented on a series of slides illustrating the demonic activity that passes as medical research. A powerful and persuasive presentation.

The second meeting was held by the sub-committee conducting hearings for the Georgia House relating to potential legislation to make dog-fighting a felony. Rev. Christopher spoke movingly on behalf of God's creatures, and testified at a third meeting, this time a full public hearing. We ask your prayers to ensure that dog-fighting is stopped.

MEDIA NOTES

The Lord has greatly blessed our efforts to spread knowledge of Him and His Healing power through the media. Rev. Raphael de Peyer appeared on Ted Turner's station, WTBS-TV, on the program, "Open Up." Joining him on the program were Dr. Robert Willingham, a Spirit-filled surgeon, who prays and lays on hands before operating, and Virginia Cates, who testified to the fact that the Lord had healed two cysts behind her eye after Rev. Raphael de Peyer had laid on hands. The station told us the show reaches 13 million souls in 49 States via satellite. Our thanks to WTBS and charming hostess, Xernona Clayton.

Rev. de Peyer also spoke on healing and answered caller's questions on famous RING RADIO (WRNG) as the guest of Dr. Burt Bradley, and taped a show for WLTA-FM on the subject of animals. Praise God for these opportunities, and for all those who called Faith Center during and after the shows.

BIRMINGHAM OUTREACH

Revs. Raphael de Peyer and Jana Bernadette will be in Birmingham July 11/12th to conduct a program including a healing service, individual counseling and healing appointments, media appearances and so on. A special mailing will go to our Birmingham friends with details of the program, and we look forward to seeing you all very soon.
